in General Consultative Status
with the United Nations
Economic and Social Council
(ECOSOC)

New Humanity

FOR A UNITED WORLD

New Humanity is an international NGO active in over 100 countries around the world. It aims to contribute to the creation of unity in the human family, fully respecting the individual identities of all of its members. For this reason it spreads the idea of a united world and promotes, in all spheres of society and at all levels, universal fraternity as proclaimed by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, as a dynamic factor in social cohesion.

To this end it carries out, through a strong volunteer base and considerable youth involvement, cultural initiatives, social projects, educational projects, economic initiatives, combining a local dimension with an international one, and, as such, it is open to the contributions of all and collaborates with individuals, institutions, representatives of the religions and diverse cultures of the world towards common goals.

Its principles and initiatives draw on the values of the Focolare Movement, founded by Chiara Lubich, Unesco Prizewinner in 1996 for peace education and Council of Europe Prizewinner in 1998 for human rights

Since 1987 it has enjoyed Consultative Status with ECOSOC/UN and since 2005 General Consultative Status. Since 2008 it has been a recognised NGO partner of UNESCO. It participates in European Commission programmes, particularly in the youth area.

It participates in projects of the ECOSOC Social Council and of the UN and UNESCO Council of Human Rights, with involvement on specific themes and presentation of experiences and projects in the field, in collaboration with other associated NGOs and with experts in cultural and social matters.

Its principal fields of action are
