

Position Sheet - Run4Unity Global Coordinator

Context:

The United World Week (UWW) is a global festival of actions, ideas, and initiatives for unity that takes place every May. Thousands of young people, communities, and organizations worldwide organize events to highlight solutions to today's challenges and to showcase what a united world looks like in practice.

One of its most iconic moments is Run4Unity, a relay race for peace and fraternity that connects people across time zones and continents. Through sports, dialogue, that connects people across time zones and continents. Through sports, dialogue, and concrete actions, participants demonstrate that a world of peace and solidarity is not just a dream, but already a living reality.

As a volunteer, you will be at the heart of this international mobilization, helping to shape and amplify a movement that crosses borders and inspires thousands.

Duration & Commitment

- October 2025 May 2026, with the most intense period between April and May.
- Approx. 6 hours of work per month + 2 hours of online meetings via Zoom.

Main Tasks

- Participate in global organizational meetings.
- Contribute to the mapping of initiatives worldwide.
- Maintain direct contact with local communities and coordinators.
- Prepare documents, toolkits, and info materials for global dissemination.
- Support in tracking and reporting activities across different regions.

Requirements

- Experience in event organization or project coordination.
- Strong organizational skills, punctuality, and proactivity.
- Good communication in English, Italian, or Portuguese (extra language is a bonus).
- Ability to work online across time zones and cultures.

What We Offer

- A central role in connecting communities worldwide for a global peace initiative.
- Experience in international event management and networking.
- The opportunity to make visible and support dozens of grassroots actions.
- A certificate of participation and the chance to build lasting global relationships.